Vickers FB 5 "Gun Bus"

Service: British: Jul'15 - Jul'16. The Vickers FB5 "Gun Bus" was first built in a batch of fifty aircraft in 1913; Vickers had built the aircraft in hopes the British Army would be wanting more aircraft for the coming war. The British army rejected the offer but later changed its mind once it was realized that the war would not be short; the Vickers FB5 was unusual in that it was designed to be a machine gun armed fighter from the start.
